[6.13] Number of cultural activities on campus (ED.6)

Description:

In the past year, RRU implemented several key cultural programs that integrate education, tradition, and community engagement:

1. Commemoration Project for HRH Princess Galyani Vadhana: This event is held annually to honor the Princess and commemorate her royal visit to open the Bang Khla campus. The program includes various sub-activities:
Religious and Charitable Acts:
 - i. A merit-making ceremony featuring nine monks
 - ii. a blood donation drive organized as a form of royal merit-making.
 - b. Educational Exhibitions:
 - i. Displays honoring the Princess's contributions to education, her favorite royal dishes,
 - ii. An exhibition on herbal products and Sufficiency Economy knowledge.
 - c. Arts and Performances:
 - i. Live performances of royal musical compositions and Luk Thung music, including performances by local school bands (SNCK BAND), which fosters community relations.
 - d. Social Services:
 - i. Demonstrations of first aid and CPR
 - ii. studio photography workshops.
2. Worship Ceremony for Phraya Sisunthonwohan (Noi Acharyankura): This ceremony honors a world-renowned figure recognized by UNESCO for his contributions to Thai education and culture. The university organized an exhibition showcasing his history and works as a master of the Thai language.
 - a. Thai Traditional Music Performances conducted by students and faculty from the Department of Thai Music, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.
3. The Sacred Dance Homage for Luang Phor Sothon. In preserving local cultural heritage, faculty members from Rajabhat Rajanagarindra University (RRU) served as expert choreographers and trainers for the traditional dance homage. This performance was a core highlight of the annual festival celebrating the historical ascension of Luang Phor Sothon from the Bang Pakong River, showcasing the university's leadership in community arts and cultural preservation.
4. "H.M. Song: MHESI Plays the King's Music" Garden Concert RRU hosted the "Music in the Garden: H.M. Song" concert, an initiative under the Ministry of Higher Education, Science, Research and Innovation (MHESI). Held on the university campus, this musical event paid tribute to the late King's royal musical compositions, fostering community engagement and cultural appreciation through live orchestral performances.
5. Rajabhat Rajanagarindra University (RRU), in collaboration with its network partners, hosted a vibrant event under the concept "Culture and Flavor" at the annual 2026 Bang Khla Mango, Food, and Local Goods Festival.

These activities demonstrate RRU's commitment to preserving local heritage and culture while promoting sustainability through social outreach and the provision of public learning spaces. Each year the university holds more than 10 events in this category.
