6 Education and Research (ED)

6.14. University sustainability programs with international collaboration (ED.7)

For the 2025–2026 academic year, RRU actively leveraged international partnerships to bolster its sustainability and regional development goals. The activity includes cross-border exchanges of students and staff members to the partner countries. These programs are driven by several key objectives including cultural diplomacy and global understanding, academic and scientific advancement, and professional and career development.
